DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's response to non-final rejection dated February 7, 2006 is acknowledged.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 17-21 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: In a method of fabricating a semiconductor device, Nakamura et al (US 2003/0006441) does teach a second insulation layer (Fig. 1; 11b) formed on a first insulation layer (Fig. 1; 11a). However, the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest, in combination with the other claimed limitations, forming target marks in the substrate to correspond to the semiconductor chips and a second insulation layer having a thickness exceeding a difference in thickness between the semiconductor chips and that of the first insulation layer.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
